June 2025

Dear Friends

Welcome to summer! All being well, we anticipate some sun across this July and August. It is a time to eat outside in the garden, to gather with friends and family, and to picnic with our community.

Every Tuesday during the school holidays, there will be “Picnic in the Park” for youngsters. It is as simple as it sounds; we meet in the park at 12pm (or the Old School Rooms if the weather is truly awful) and we give away a free lunch for primary school aged children and their siblings. It is run by an utterly fabulous team from the Church.

Why do we do this? Well, we want people to know about the generous love of God. As Christians we believe that God loves us before we love God. God’s love for us is sacrificial, and we believe that Jesus has already given everything for us. And so, as the Church, we want to be radically generous to share that love. As Jesus loved feeding people, so do we!

But there’s a slight rub. As a Church, our running costs have risen hugely in the last year and we are anticipating a deficit. Now, this will not stop us being generous! Far from it! But we wanted to let you know that we are not sitting on a pile of money. And so we are grateful to everyone who gives to us, in whatever way.

It is always awkward to talk about money, but it’s important to let you know that there are different ways to give financially. You can join our new 100 Club and have a chance of winning some money back. You can give via the Contactless machine in Church when it is open every day from 8am-4pm. You can set up Easy Fundraising to raise money for the Church when you shop online at no cost to you – just select “All Saints Rayne” on the Easy Fundraising website, register and then and opt in to give when you make a purchase. You can even set up a standing order to give regularly to All Saints.

Your generosity can help us to continue to be generous, and to share the wonderful news that we are so very loved, now and always.

With love and prayers for a safe summer.

Rachel

AN INVITATION FOR VOLUNTEERS TO HELP LOOK AFTER THE CHURCHYARD

We are proud of our Rayne churchyard as a quiet and calm place to visit or walk through.

A churchyard maintenance plan has been written to encourage biodiversity as well as to keep the grave areas tidy. The plan allows for the creation of two wild flower meadows away from the burial areas. We invite you to see that plan on:

<https://www.thethreechurches.co.uk/churchyard> (See the section "Caring for the Churchyard".)

The Parish Council, having for many years maintained the churchyard, is understandably no longer able to do so without payment; consequently its role has been reduced. Therefore, we are seeking volunteers to keep the grass around the graves down to a sensible height. We want things to look cared for while allowing wild plants to thrive.

Please do get in touch with us if you feel that you could help us occasionally across the growing seasons. We would be most grateful for any assistance.

At the meeting of the Full Council held on Monday 9th June , nine councillors were present.

MESSAGE FROM CLLR ANN HOOKS, CHAIR OF RAYNE PARISH COUNCIL

I am honoured to have been elected as Chair of Rayne Parish Council for the coming year.

It is a privilege to serve our community in this role, and I look forward to representing the village at the parish level. I remain committed to working hard on behalf of all residents to ensure Rayne continues to be a place we are proud to call home.

Over the next 12 months, the Parish Council will continue to focus on the priorities that matter most to our village — maintaining our green spaces, supporting local services, improving communication, and preserving the unique character of Rayne. We are also mindful of the challenges ahead, and we will work constructively with residents, businesses, and local partners to find the best outcomes for our community.

At our May meeting, the Council took the decision to amend our Standing Orders to allow for the appointment of two Vice Chairs. This was an important and forward-thinking step, aimed at supporting succession planning and giving councillors the chance to learn the role and be ready to step up when needed. I'm pleased to announce that Cllr Jan Rickwood and Cllr Jason Nicholls will serve as Vice Chairs this year — their experience and commitment will be a great asset to the Council.

I would also like to express my heartfelt appreciation to Cllr Mike Eldred, who has led the Council with dedication over the past two years. Mike guided us through a particularly active period and was the person who first introduced our now-popular community coffee mornings. I'm pleased to confirm these coffee mornings will continue, providing a welcoming space for residents to connect and chat.

I welcome feedback, ideas, and involvement from anyone who wishes to take part in shaping the future of Rayne. Together, we can make a positive difference.

Thanks

Ann

DISTRICT COUNCILLOR – ANN HOOKS¹²

Greetings to you all. There is a lot to update you all with!

333 Bus Route Update

It was welcome news when the 333 bus service was announced as a fully functioning route. At the time of writing my report, there were a few teething issues with the early-morning buses, but I have been in regular contact with Central Connect to help get these resolved.

Now, a month on, I hope the service is running smoothly so that:

Workers and travellers can use the service early and late to reach Stansted Airport

An hourly service is available on both Saturdays and Sundays

The service now runs via Station Approach, directly serving Braintree Train Station

Upgraded vehicles have been introduced to improve passenger experience

A huge thank you to Central Connect Essex & Hertfordshire and London Stansted Airport for listening to the needs of our community and delivering a bus service that our village truly deserves.

You can find full route and timetable details here:

Important Waste & Recycling Changes Coming to Braintree District

Braintree District Council's Cabinet has approved a new Waste & Recycling Strategy, in response to national changes introduced under the Government's Simpler Recycling scheme. These changes aim to make recycling easier, more consistent, and better for the environment.

During the recent consultation, the message from residents was clear: we must recycle more.

Data also shows that too much food waste is ending up in black bins, contributing to methane emissions in landfill. Soon, this black bin waste will be sent to the Rivenhall Incinerator, which will produce smoke vapour over the district. Recycling more isn't just good policy—it's essential for protecting our environment.

From summer next year, here's what to expect:

You will receive two new wheelie bins for recycling

Black bin collections will move to every 3 weeks

Absorbent Hygiene Products (nappies and sanitary items): residents can request separate collections every 2 weeks

Food waste collections will continue weekly

Green waste collections (for subscribers) will remain fortnightly

Paper and cardboard will be collected monthly (on alternate weeks)

Glass, plastics (including soft plastics), and metals will also be collected fortnightly (on alternate weeks)

Clinical waste collections will remain unchanged

All households will receive a printed collection calendar

Your collection day may change due to revised routes

What if you don't have room for more bins?

The Council is currently assessing properties. In the autumn, households will be informed whether they are classified as:

Standard properties – suitable for wheelie bins

Non-standard properties – including flats and homes with limited frontage, which will receive lidded boxes instead

Only around 13% of homes are expected to fall into the non-standard category.

Please remember: this is a national, legal change that applies to all councils. With everyone's cooperation, we can make this work and take an important step toward a cleaner, greener Braintree District.

The frequently asked questions about the new waste and recycling service are being regularly updated. You can find the latest information here:

 Braintree District Council – Waste and Recycling FAQs

Local Plan Update – Land Submissions in Rayne

On 19th June, Braintree District Council will be reviewing the land submitted during last year's Call for Sites exercise. Several parcels within Rayne Parish were put forward as potential development locations.

Once the agenda for this meeting is published, we will be able to see whether any of the Rayne sites have been proposed for allocation in the new, revised Local Plan.

As I'm writing this ahead of the meeting, I encourage residents to follow my social media channels for the latest updates and outcomes once the discussion has taken place.

Residents may welcome the news that some sites between Rayne and Braintree (but outside our parish) have not been allocated. This includes land north of the Flitch Way that formed part of the large Brook Green proposal—an application Rayne residents successfully opposed at appeal a few years ago.

Land to the south of the Flitch Way, due to its scale and complexity, will be considered at a later meeting in September.

Councillor Community Grants

I'm pleased to share that more funding from my Councillor Community Grant Fund has recently been allocated to support local groups in Rayne.

1st Rayne Scouts have received £300 to help purchase much-needed camping equipment.

The Old School Room Committee has been awarded £350 to assist with the replacement of the front fence and gate.

It's fantastic to be able to support such worthwhile community projects that make a real difference to village life.

As usual, if you do require my assistance or would like to reach out to me, my email address is cllr.ahooks@braintree.gov.uk This is my preferred method of contact. Although, in an emergency I can be contacted on my mobile, 07852 552247. I also have active social media pages, Facebook (Cllr Ann Hooks) and Instagram page (cllr_ann_hooks), where you can keep up to date with what I am up to!

Wildlife Reports, till June 2025 ¹⁴

Sonia Watts, Shalford Road 9/5 had a fishpond in their garden which had 9 very large Koi, 4 smaller ones and a Tench. I use the past tense as an Otter visited the garden and reduced the remaining fish to two Koi, one of which had its tail and fin eaten by the Otter. At first I queried if it was an Otter as though they have been recorded locally we had not had a sighting confirmed within the parish. Sonia had a recording on their cctv which confirmed it was. This should not be surprising as Pods Brook is an ideal highway for Otters to enter the Parish. Sonias husband did surround the pond with netting to try and prevent further visits, but this is a warning to villagers with garden ponds stocked with well-fed fish, they should also take precautions. One can become attached to pet fish just like a pet dog, cat or hamster. What upset Sonia especially was the fact that not all the fish were eaten for food, many were just killed.

Sue Dawson and her husband while walking their dogs towards the river heard a Cuckoo calling. At first it appeared to be getting closer, then it moved towards Panfield. My own hearing is not good, but I have not heard one in the Parish for many years.

At Goulds, in my last report I mentioned the female Mallard duck that appeared with 17 ducklings. Then over the next few days this large brood was reduced to 4 ducklings. Unfortunately, the female then lost the four. This was not due to a shortage of food as I was able to separate the mother and the ducklings from the other ducks and to feed them suitable food for several days before they disappeared. Unfortunately, the mother would not be able to protect the ducklings from predators such as Badgers and Foxes both of which hunt during the night and have well used paths through our garden. Ducklings of that age cannot be brooded by the mother on the water overnight. Another female appeared in the garden with 7 ducklings and immediately lost 6 and a day later the seventh.

Adult Mallard duck numbers are not under threat as I still have regular counts of up to 20 adult Mallard on the lawn every morning. This is usually equal numbers of male and females, when the female number is less than the male number at this time of the year it would indicate that the missing females could be sitting on a nest full of eggs. I have a range of bird feeders in the garden and the food wastage from these feeders is cleared by the duck which I do not encourage by direct feeding except when there are ducklings which I do give food to. As I have written in previous reports I wish to keep Mallard numbers at a sensible level. They have seriously affected our two main ponds with their excrement.

A pair of Moorhens have also arrived with two just hatched young. Their numbers have declined considerably in the last few years as they always used to have their nest in the vegetation growing in or on the water's edge of all ponds. Badgers and foxes soon realised that they provided easy meals and paddled out to nests and robbed both eggs and young. The Moorhens then started nesting in nearby shrubs and hedges but flying predators have also become major predators. Unfortunately, when the duckling first leaves the nest, it is a good swimmer but is not able to fly. The young of many bird species spend time in the nest flapping their wings before they leave it. I believe our garden Moorhen nested in our very old Oak that has numerous sites that could be used.

I have not mentioned one predator the Moorhen also had to contend with when I was young, these were myself and my boyhood friend Terry Runchman. At weekends we would provide food for ourselves and one of the items in our diet were hard boiled eggs from Mallard and Moorhen nests when in season. We would always leave at least 3 eggs in the nest so the owner continued laying and would only repeat the theft twice.

I am sure this would be a wildlife offence now if you were able to find enough nests for a juvenile's feast.

I had no pictures for this report until this morning when Syl and I watched from our bedroom window a juvenile Great Spotted Woodpecker demolishing a rotted branch of the oak tree. I committed a cardinal sin for any decent photographer and did not immediately rush to get the camera but watched the pecker demolish part of the branch on the left in the picture. It was looking for and finding insects while removing large flakes of rotting wood. I then belatedly retrieved my camera and took only two pictures without making any adjustment to the camera settings. The pecker decided that was enough and flew off. Age is reducing my ability at knowing where the nest site of this juvenile pecker was, 70 years ago Terry and I would have known.

Summer Months – Keeping your tyres in check

I'd normally write an article with crime prevention advice, however I thought I'd write something to point out the importance of legal tyre tread on your car. With the warmer weather here it's really important to stay on top of your vehicle tyre pressures. You should do a cursory check of your vehicle (tyres, lights, indicators, brakes, fluids, screen wash) before driving. Extreme changes in temperature can affect your tyres.

In the UK the minimum legal tread depth for car tyres is 1.6mm across the central three-quarters of the tyre. This means that the tread must be at least 1.6mm deep across 75% of the tyre's circumference. It is imperative to change your tyres once this limit has been reached to avoid compromising your safety and breaking the law. In addition, illegal tread depth could result in points (3 points per tyre) on your driving licence and a fine of £2,500 per tyre. Any cuts, tears, bulges or lumps in the sidewall or tread could result in an MOT failure as they make tyres more susceptible to punctures and blowouts. IT'S WORTH CHECKING THEM REGULARLY don't rely on your annual MOT.
